WHAT'S INVOLVED?

Interpret your local histories for children and share the hidden treasures and stories of our limestone caverns.

You could be supporting staff as they lead one of our school workshops. Teaching children about rocks and fossils, life on a working boat or the Black Country Canals and Industry or helping teachers as they take their groups on the self guided limestone trail and explore our exhibition.

In the school holidays help with our Boat trip and craft sessions. With a different theme each holiday there is lots of variety.

WHO THIS ROLE WOULD SUIT

The role of Learning Volunteer will suit someone who;

- enjoys working with children of all ages
- is enthusiastic and passionate
- Is friendly and happy to answer question – you never know what you will be asked!
- Is creative and willing to have a go at anything
- has lots of patience
- is flexible and happy to volunteer on different days from week to week

Previous experience of working with children would be an advantage but is not essential

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

- Becoming part of a friendly team
- Meeting new people, both young and old from all walks of life
- Enhancing and extending your skills and knowledge
- Enjoying new experiences
