

Dudley Canal and Tunnel Trust

Role: Trustee – Voluntary

Dudley Canal and Tunnel Trust is seeking to recruit Trustees to work with the Chair, Chief Executive, and Board of Trustees to develop its governance, strategic plans, charitable aims, and development as a vibrant Charity.

The Trust has been in operation over sixty years and runs guided boat trips through ancient scheduled monuments and abandoned industrial mines, cruises on the canal, education workshops, special events and a large onsite catering establishment. Through Enterprises, its wholly owned trading arm it runs a large onsite gift shop and corporate and hospitality department.

This is an exciting time to join us as the Trust looks to review and reposition several of its offers and develop plans and goals that will ensure it remains sustainable, vibrant, and engaging for all.

The post holder will be willing to share expertise and insight with the Trust as all applicants are welcome, but we especially encourage applications from those with experience or a passion for charities, canals and industrial heritage sites, geology, business development and heritage. A commitment to be actively involved and the ability to help us realise our vision and strategic aims with skills and energy is a must.

Commitment – 6 x Trust Board Meetings (mix of in-person and virtual), 1 x Annual General Meeting and 1 x Board Away Day.

Requests for further information or to apply, please send in an initial CV and covering letter to Kerry Ingram kerry@dctt.org.uk or post to Dudley Canal and Tunnel Trust, 501 Birmingham New Road, Dudley, West Midlands. DY1 4SB. Closing Date 29th February 2024

www.dudleycanaltrust.org.uk